“The Fulbright-Nehru fellowship provided an opportunity to understand the nuances of solving global problems, such as, climate change and the latest de-carbonization technologies. At Yale University, I was part of a global community committed to public good and bring the elements of multiculturalism alive.”

Suman Chandra, 2020 Fulbright-Nehru Master's fellow at Yale University, New Haven, CT

“The experience allowed me to build upon my existing research, speak at conferences, learn new techniques in the field of oral history, and foster relationships with people across the globe. Being in the state of Massachusetts allowed me to explore various archives, museums, and libraries on the East Coast, which is a major highlight of my fellowship.”

Parul Srivastava, 2020 Fulbright-Nehru Doctoral Research fellow at the University of Massachusetts Amherst, MA

“My Fulbright-Nehru grant helped me go beyond the traditional discipline of agriculture and biology which has enabled me to carve out my unique research niche. The fellowship provided me an opportunity to collaborate with several scientists which will help me in my future career trajectory.”

Enakshi Ghosh, 2020 Fulbright-Nehru Postdoctoral Research fellow at Colorado State University, Fort Collins, CO
